Incident: Underage Drinking Initiative
Location: Various locations within the Town of Wallkill, NY
Date/Time: December 17, 2015 between 5:00 pm and 9:30 pm

On Thursday, December 17, 2015, members of the Town of Wallkill Police Department, Chuck Russell of the Town's Building Department, and Investigator Christopher DePozzo from the New York State Liquor Authority, conducted an initiative to determine if retail businesses and restaurants are selling alcohol to minors.

The following individuals were arrested after being observed selling alcohol to a juvenile:

Adam L Walsh, 25 years old, of Port Jervis, NY, at Cumberland Farms convenience store, 356 East Main Street.

Wong Wing Kin, 63 years old, a Town of Wallkill resident, at You You restaurant, 465 Route 211 East.

Samuel M Chalom, 30 years old, of Goshen, NY, at El Bandido restaurant, 536 East Main Street.

Each of the defendants was charged with Unlawfully Dealing with a Child and issued an appearance ticket to appear at the Town of Wallkill Court on January 6, 2016 at 9:00 am.

El Bandido and You You restaurants were cited for one Building Code violation each. Additionally, Cumberland Farms convenience store was cited for two building code violations.

This ongoing effort is meant to curb the illegal sale of alcoholic beverages to minors in the Town of Wallkill. The use of alcohol by minors is illegal and threatens their wellbeing while simultaneously having a detrimental impact on the quality of life in our Town. We will continue to work with our partners in the community to identify and address conditions which threaten the welfare of our youth or diminish the quality of life in the Town of Wallkill.

Robert C. Hertman
Chief of Police
